

Business Appraisals

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

This document represents an agreement of confidentiality between _____, herein called, The Client and Business Appraisals.

The Client agrees to allow Business Appraisals access to certain confidential information relating to its business. This may include, but is not limited to, company financials and tax returns.

Business Appraisals agrees to hold all confidential information, including knowledge of the appraisal in trust and confidence, and agrees that it shall be used for the sole purpose of valuing The Client's business. The information shall not be disclosed to any third party unless directed to do so by The Client.

It is understood that Business Appraisals shall have no obligation to hold confidential any information it already has, or is generally known within the industry.

Upon request by The Client, all written information shall be returned or destroyed.
